ONLY A BRIEF REST

Possibility of a New Luetgert Trial Next Week

THE PROSECUTION'S THREAT

In the Event the Sausage Maker is Admitted to Bail.

If Bail is Denied the Defense threatens to Have Recourse to Habeas Corpus Process. Luetgert in Court Yesterday.

Chicago, Oct. 22.—Judge Tuthill and the attorneys in the Luetgert case held an informal conference this morning in the court chambers upon the subject of admitting Luetgert to bail, and the fact that the defendant was brought into court caused a report that formal application was made. The proposition was vigorously opposed by State's Attorney Deneen and the upshot of the argument was that no formal application was made and Luetgert was returned to jail.

The attorneys say they will make formal application in a few days and if denied will apply for a writ of habeas corpus. If this action is taken the state's attorney will at once proceed to trial again and it is among the possibilities that Luetgert will be on trial for his life again in the middle of next week.

HE WAS EXPLAINING.

A Practical Demonstration of the Efficacy of a Muzzle Loader.

Stockton, Cal., Oct. 22.—A shocking accident happened this evening when Roy Phelps, the 14-year-old son of Rev. Philo Phelps, a Presbyterian clergyman, accidentally shot Vennil Strother, about the same age, son of J. H. Strother, a farmer. A charge of shot from young Phelps' gun went through both wrists of the lad and tore out a course across the abdomen, but did not enter the cavity. Surgeons say if Strothers has sufficient strength he will recover.

The boys were seated under a tree examining their guns and explaining to each other the points of excellence of muzzle loaders, when the gun held by young Phelps went off.

RESORT TO THE ALIBI

A New Movement for Saving the Neck of Worden.

San Francisco, Oct. 22.—The friends of S. D. Worden, under sentence to be hanged for wrecking a train during the great railroad strike, have started a movement to secure a new trial. They have eighteen or twenty affidavits proving an alibi, none of which have yet been presented.

After being submitted to Governor Budd and Attorney-General Fitzgerald they will be sent to the United States supreme justices. The money is being raised in labor councils and unions and if enough cannot be procured in this way an appeal will be made to the public.

PRICE OF MONEY.

New York, Oct. 22.—Money on call, easier at 1@2 per cent; last loan, 2; closed, offered at 1 per cent; prime mercantile paper, 4@4½ per cent; sterling exchange, firm, with actual business in bankers' bills at $4.84½@4.85 for demand, and at $1.82¼@4.82½ for sixty days; posted rates, $4.82½@4.83½ and $4.85½; commercial bills, $4.81; silver certificates, 57½@58; bar silver, 58½; Mexican dollars, 45.

MOUNTED NATIONAL GUARD.

Denver, Oct. 22.—A special to the News from Santa Fe, N. M., says: Col. E. Van Patten of Las Cruces has been in conference with Adjutant-General H. B. Hearesy touching the proposed organization of mounted infantry companies, to be a part of the New Mexico National Guard at Las Cruces, Mesilla and other places in southern New Mexico.

A TAME CABINET MEETING.

Washington, Oct. 22.—Today's cabinet meeting was very brief and was devoted to department matters. Neither foreign affairs nor the Union Pacific foreclosure was discussed.

BLOOMERS OBJECTED TO.

High School Girls Opposed to Reform Costumes for Exercises.

St. Joseph, Mo., Oct. 22.—Mrs. Grace G. Travers, a former actress and wife of an actor, now teacher of elocution in the St. Joseph high school, ordered a few days ago each young woman member of the class to provide herself with bloomers in order to practice the wand drills and calisthenic exercises. The girls and their parents object strenuously to the order, and will carry their troubles to the board of education if the order be not rescinded. Professor Miller, principal of the high school, supports Mrs. Travers, and a lively contest will undoubtedly ensue.

BUSY NEBRASKA FARMERS.

Unusual Activity Since the Rains Assures a Normal Grain Acreage.

Lincoln, Neb., Oct. 22.—The past seven days have been more important in the development of the agricultural resources of Nebraska than the whole summer. More fall plowing and seeding has been done in the time than during the past two months. In fact, since the rains of seven days ago which concluded the drought of two months, the farmers of the state have been in the field as much as their physical condition would permit. Every man who is able to handle a plow on the farms of the state has been busy breaking up ground for fall wheat or seeding. The grain acreage, which was believed to have been curtailed one-third by the extended drought, has been extended by the great energy displayed, until it will be at least normal, and probably a little larger.

Showers have fallen almost daily over the state, but at no time has it been too wet to break ground. A large quantity of virgin soil is also being turned over preparatory for seeding next year. The result has been, also, that the repeated rains have brought out the range grass, which was so terribly burned, until it looks quite green again. The streams of the state are beginning to show signs of the increased moisture, and the whole state is feeling the good results. The continued summer weather in the state will very much contribute to the success of those farmers who desire to put in a larger acreage of wheat than usual.

Stock men declare that the situation on the range has improved 15 per cent since the rains commenced, and the grain men estimate that their prospects have improved 25 per cent since the drought was broken. Tonight rain is falling over the state. In no section of Nebraska is there any evidence of the parched and drought-like conditions that were so general a week ago.

RILEY GRANNAN'S CASE.

New York, Oct. 22.—The opinion of the court of appeals in Riley Grannan's case has been published in full in the New York Law Journal. It is written by Judge Celora E. Martin, all of whose associates agree with him that a person may lawfully be excluded permanently from the meetings of any association of this state as a penalty for violating the rule of the New York Jockey club which prohibits the giving of presents to jockeys. Mr. Grannan was ruled off the turf, as the phrase is, for giving a jockey $500. The court holds that the regulation forbidding such practices and punishing them by permanent exclusion from the race courses is not unreasonable. The opinion would be more satisfactory, however, if it made some reference to one of the most important points discussed by Mr. Justice Hatch in the appellate division. This was that the law as it now exists in New York gives to the jockey club and the various racing associations a practical monopoly of horse racing for money. The absolute control of a great public amusement is thus conferred upon these corporations, and it is essential to the interest of the people that they should not exercise that control oppressively or by the imposition of excessive penalties for a violation of their regulations.

A RAILROAD'S RESPONSIBILITY.

Extends All Along All Connecting Lines.

San Francisco, Oct. 22.—The supreme court decided today that a railroad company which contracts to carry freight from one point to another is liable for damage sustained by the same on connecting lines. The Colfax Mountain Fruit company shipped a carload of fresh fruit to New York by the Southern Pacific.

The fruit reached its destination in a damaged condition. The Southern Pacific was sued for damages in Placer county and a verdict against the company was rendered. This has now been sustained by the supreme court.

AN ENGINEERING TRIUMPH.

Many Tons of Metal Swiftly Shifted on a Philadelphia Bridge.

Philadelphia, Oct. 22.—On the connecting railroad bridge over the Schuylkill yesterday afternoon, without disturbance to the traffic of the New York division of the Pennsylvania railroad, an iron span 242 feet long, twenty-five feet wide and twenty feet deep, was replaced by a steel one of the same size, nearly 1,700 tons being moved twenty-five feet in two minutes and thirty-two seconds. The time set for the feat was an unusual interval of three-quarters of an hour between the passage of trains. A locomotive and four stationary engines, the latter aggregating less than 100 horse power, did the work, but so well had the application of the tension been calculated that there was no hitch.

OFFICIAL TALE OF ALASKA

Report of Gov. Brady to the Interior Department.

The Condition of Gold Hunters—A Government Building Asked for. The Estimated Population. Request of a Revision of the Laws.

Washington, Oct. 22.—The report of John G. Brady, governor of Alaska, for the past fiscal year has been submitted to the secretary of the interior. It estimates the population at 30,000 natives and 10,000 whites and recommends an appropriation for a government building and schools. It urges congress to create a commission of five to codify the laws of Alaska.

Reviewing the gold operations, Governor Brady says: "Shiploads of gold seekers have been rushed to the extreme limit of salt water navigation (Lynn canal) and there they have been literally dumped upon the beach. They have had a terrible time, but they are brave and started out to endure hardships. As a class they rank far above the average manhood of the country. Lumber is in demand and lots are selling as high as $1,500."

HEROINE REVEALED.

Records Show Deborah Gannett Was a Massachusetts Soldier.

Washington, Oct. 22.—The fact that there was another New England woman besides Moll Pitcher, who won fame at the cannon's mouth, has recently been brought to light as the result of an inquiry at the pension bureau. There is a certain lady living in Massachusetts who is anxious to become a daughter of the Revolution. She believed that her genealogy could be traced back to the revolutionary times through the records of the interior department. To prove this fact she wrote to the secretary of the interior, asking information as to the alleged military service of Deborah Gannett, her ancestor, who was said to have served as an enlisted soldier in the revolutionary war as a member of the Massachusetts infantry. Her belief was confirmed by the receipt of the following letter:

"Madam—In response to your recent inquiry, referred to this bureau by Hon. Webster Davis, acting secretary of the interior, I have the honor to advise you that Deborah Gannett, a woman who served as a soldier in the revolutionary war under the name of Robert Shurtleff, made an application for pension on September 14, 1818, at which time she was 59 years of age and residing at Sharon, Mass., and her pension was allowed for two years' actual service as a private in the Massachusetts troops, revolutionary war. It appears that she enlisted in the month of April, 1781, and served in Captain George Webb's company, in the Massachusetts regiment commanded by Col. Shepherd, afterward by Col. Jackson, until about the month of November, 1783, when she was honorably discharged. During the time of her service she was wounded at Tarrytown (probably in the second battle of that place), and was also present at the surrender of Lord Cornwallis. Very respectfully,

"H. CLAY EVANS,
"Commissioner."

AN EVEN BREAK.

St. Joseph, Mo., Oct. 22.—In the Baltimore-All-American game here today the score was tied in the 10th inning. Baltimore, 9; All-Americans, 9.

BEATEN AND MAY DIE.

Work of Bayonne Hoodlums—One of the Latter Badly Wounded.

New York, Oct. 22.—At an early hour yesterday morning Patrolman Daniel Moran of Bayonne was murdered, assaulted in lower Cottage street, in the Bergen Point section, by Martin, alias "Coddger," Connors, 26 years old, and Martin Brown, 28 years old. The former is lying in the Bayonne hospital suffering from the effects of a bullet wound in one of his lungs.

Patrolman Moran was taking Brown, whom he had arrested for disorderly conduct, to the Seventh precinct police station, when Connors jumped upon him from a dark alley. The men were too much for the policeman, and after felling him, beat him with his night stick and kicked him into insensibility. Moran was found in a helpless condition, but after attendance by Dr. L. F. Donohue was able to tell the names of his assailants. He was taken to his home suffering from a fractured skull and internal injuries which may prove fatal.

A general alarm was sent out for the arrest of Brown and Connors, and about 5:30 o'clock in the morning Detectives Foley and Griffin found Connors in the meadows near the Port Johnson coal docks.

His attempt to escape was stopped by bullets from the pistols of the officers. Connors was taken to the Bayonne hospital, and on the way was told that he had killed Moran. He replied that he was glad to hear it. Brown was also arrested later.

GEN. BOOTH'S NEXT CAMPAIGN.

Thinks He Will Have as Large German Army as Emperor William.

London, Oct. 22.—General Booth of the Salvation Army has gone to Germany. He will open a big campaign in Berlin on Monday, the second within a year. He says the harvest of souls is already enormous and if things go on as they lately have done he will soon have as big a German army as Emperor William himself.

General Booth believes that the emperor is favorably disposed toward the Salvation Army. Its military methods and strict discipline appeal to his majesty's soldierly instincts and the zeal and devotion of the rank and file please him greatly.

General Booth is a pretty cautious man in some respects and he has no desire to come into collision with the lese majeste law. But he gives out the impression that he does not despair of converting the emperor. No sumptuary exceptions would, however, be made on behalf of the emperor. If he desires to join the Salvation Army he is quite at liberty to do so, for his soul is as well worth saving as that of any other human creature, but he will have to go to the stool of penitence and don the red jersey in due course.

SHE KISSED BABY.

Then Calmly Swallowed a Dose of Laudanum.

Kansas City, Oct. 22.—Despondent because she had been deserted by her husband and left with the care of her child, Mrs. Sarah Daniels ended her life this morning, by swallowing the ounces of laudanum at the residence of Jacob Barzeh, 1628 Bellevue street. Mrs. Daniels had been employed in Mr. Barzen's family as a domestic for the past two months.

Her husband, P. H. Daniels, deserted her and her child at Pleasant Hill, Mo., three months ago, leaving her a railroad ticket to this city.

Yesterday afternoon she went to the residence of her brother, B. T. Sears, 736 Locust street, where she remained several hours. When she left she kissed her baby, not yet a year old, and said to Mrs. Sears:

"Take good care of the baby; the task is too hard for me."

Mrs. Daniels took the laudanum at an early hour this morning in her room, and was found several hours later unconscious by Mrs. Barzen. A physician was summoned, but the poison had taken effect. Coroner Bedford viewed the remains and decided an inquest unnecessary. She was 23 years of age.

CAPT. LOVERING TO BE TRIED.

The Punishment of Private Hammond to Be Investigated.

Washington, Oct. 22.—General Miles, after consultation with the secretary of war this morning, issued instructions to General Brooke, commanding the department of Missouri, to appoint a court martial for the trial of Captain L. A. Lovering of the Fourth infantry on the general charge of having used uncalled for severity upon Private Hammond of the Fourth infantry to compel compliance with an order for the soldier to appear at regimental headquarters. It is charged that the officer prodded the soldier with his sword and kicked him while the latter, with his legs tied, was being dragged by four soldiers acting under Captain Lovering's orders. It is understood that orders were also given for the court martial of the soldier on the charge of insubordination in having positively refused to obey a proper order from his superior officer.

On behalf of Captain Lovering it is stated in explanation of the binding of the soldier that he refused positively to walk and could be carried in no other way.

The case is exciting great attention in and out of military circles, and the result will be awaited with interest.

A SNAKE IN THE CHOIR LOFT.

Its Life Beaten Out With Songs of the Church.

New York, Oct. 22.—A dozen boys and girls in the choir of the Asbury M. E. church at New Springfield, Staten Island, went to the church last night to rehearse. In the parry was Miss Elizabeth Hunt, daughter of Charles Hunt of Bull's Head.

She placed her cloak on a chair in the choir loft, and, having occasion to move it, she picked it up. As she did so she felt something cold and wriggling in her hand, and the scream she let out scared the others in the choir.

"Oh, it's a horrid snake," she managed to say as she fled from the loft, followed by her colleagues. A consultation was held at the church door, and it was decided that the snake must die. So Isaac Wissant armed himself with a hymn book and went back to the loft. There he found the snake curled up on a chair, and he beat it to death with the songs of the church. According to the solemn word of all the choir members the snake was a blacksnake at least five feet long. There are some persons in New Springfield who declare that this is a gross exaggeration, but none of them belong to the choir.

HEAD END COLLISION.

Mexico, Mo., Oct. 21.—A head-end collision of freight trains occurred on the Chicago & Alton road yesterday, just east of this city. A negro from Laddonia, Mo., was killed, Fred Mead, an engineer, and Charles Davis, fireman of the eastbound, and Lew Gray, engineer, and J. C. Wheeler, fireman of the westbound, were injured slightly. They saved their lives by jumping. Fourteen cars were derailed and the two engines demolished, causing a loss estimated at $20,000.

ONE WOMAN WHIPS ANOTHER.

Chicago, Oct. 22.—At last night's session of branch No. 1 of the Debs social democracy, Mrs. Thomas P. Quinn, wife of the former president of the recently expelled branch No. 2, attacked Mrs. Fannie Clark Kavanaugh, president of branch No. 1, with a horsewhip and badly disfigured her before any one could interfere. Mrs. Kavanaugh had charged Mrs. Quinn's husband with being a Pinkerton detective.

STATE OF THE ARMY

Annual Report of General Miles to the Department.

SEVEN MORE REGIMENTS

Believed to Be Necessary to Complete Efficiency.

The General Advises the Establishment of Alaskan Military Posts and a Thorough Occupation of Alaskan Waters.

Washington, Oct. 22.—General Miles, commanding general of the army, has made his annual report to the secretary of war. He commends the efficiency of the army and speaks of the progress that has been made on both the Atlantic and Pacific coasts in the matter of fortifications. He asks that congress authorize two more regiments of artillery to garrison the new fortifications and also five additional regiments of infantry.

He devotes considerable attention to Alaska and says the waters of Alaska should be thoroughly examined by the naval forces and that there should be at least three military posts established in the territory to support the civil authorities.

He refers to the improved condition of the Indians and recommends that the policy of employing army officers as Indian agents be continued. He makes recommendations in detail for the protection of coast points and says the maximum peace footing of the army should be one enlisted man to every one thousand population and the minimum one to every two thousand.

SWINDLER'S USE OF A CHURCH.

Said He Was Its Assistant Rector and Made $11 in Cash.

Plainfield, N. J., Oct. 22.—One day this week a beautiful carpet and some rugs of fine texture were delivered by express at the house here of the Rev. T. Logan Murphy of the Church of the Holy Cross. They were not expected, but the bundle was plainly marked "For the Rectory of Holy Cross Church, Plainfield," and it was received. The marks on it showed that it came from Sheppard Knapp & Co. of New York. The Rev. Mr. Murphy wrote to the firm about it, and got a reply that it was all right, that the goods had been paid for by the Rev. Mr. Lewis, the assistant rector of the Holy Cross church.

Here is a mystery again, for there is no such person connected with that church. Mr. Murphy by more persistent inquiry found that a man calling himself the assistant rector had bought the goods and had paid for them with a worthless check which amounted to $11 over their cost, and had taken the change. The name of Holy Cross church had been enough guarantee to the firm, and they did not hesitate to send the goods. They had no suspicion of a swindle until Mr. Murphy wrote them. The goods will be sent back on Monday.

CENTRAL PACIFIC DEBT

The Company Endeavoring to Get a Three Years' Extension.

San Francisco, Oct. 22.—On the first of the coming January over $15,000,000 of the first mortgage bonds of the Central Pacific railroad will fall due and an effort is now being made by the company to induce holders of the securities to accept an extension on the bonds for a period of three years.

The banking house of Speyer & Co., New York, has been engaged to handle the entire matter for the company and the holders of bonds are asked to present their holdings for an extension at their offices in the east.

A CHICAGO ALDERMAN SHOT.

Chicago, Oct. 22.—Alderman J. A. Haberkorn was shot and perhaps fatally wounded by George Jensen in a saloon quarrel yesterday. Jensen, who is under arrest, claims that the alderman attempted to bite off his nose.
